Letter of Commendation

WHEREAS, the rank of Eagle Scout is an accomplishment that caps years of learning through progressive leadership responsibilities, volunteerism, earning at least twenty-one merit badges and countless nights spent camping in wilderness.

WHEREAS, over the history of the Boy Scouts of America, only two million boys have become Eagle Scouts (less than 3% of boys involved in Scouting), and it is a rank that is awarded for life.

WHEREAS, the road to becoming an Eagle Scout is long and difficult, the reward is great. He has been tested and challenged in a way that not only gives him a greater understanding of his place in his community, but a better understanding of who he is and what he is capable of achieving.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, that the Teton County Board of County Commissioners recognizes and bestows commendation of distinction on Brandon Galbraith of Troop 68 for achieving the Eagle rank.

DATED this 6th day of February, 2018 by the TETON COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, in Jackson, Wyoming.
