Public Meeting on Proposed Improvements On Spring Gulch Road

Tuesday, February 5, 2019, Jackson, WY – As part of ongoing public engagement efforts, Teton County will be hosting a public meeting next week regarding proposed improvements on Spring Gulch Road.

The meeting will be an open house format with plans and exhibit materials available for public review and comment.

Teton County Engineering staff is currently working on plans for improvements on Spring Gulch from the intersection with Lucas Riva Road to Bar BC Ranch Road including paving of gravel sections, and design concepts to reduce speeds such as signage, creative striping, and speed tables. In addition, various speed calming measures are being considered on Spring Gulch from the Gros Ventre River to Sagebrush Drive.

The meeting will be held on Monday, February 11, 2019, from 4:00-6:00pm at the North Grille at Jackson Hole Golf and Tennis Club (5000 N. Spring Gulch Road).

Questions before or after the meeting can be directed to Amy Ramage (aramage@tetoncountywy.gov, 307-732-8574) or Jazmine Watson (jwatson@tetoncountywy.gov, 307-732-8575).
