WHO is affected?
HOW big is the issue?
WHAT contributes to the issue?
WHEN and WHERE is the issue most likely to occur?

| Social Determinants of Health | |
|---|---|
| Theme: Access to Healthcare | |
| Who | The theme impacts everyone (all gender, races, ages, abilities, etc). Sub populations include women, children, immigrants, and seasonal workers. |
| How | The impact of this issue is widespread as it impacts all populations and connects to other issues of time, travel, education, and prevention. |
| What | Elements that contribute to this theme include Wyoming Medicaid, lack of providers, lack of resources, transportation, language and cultural barriers, and income as a determinant of Medicaid eligibility |
| When and Where | Rural and outlying communities, as population increases need increases, need higher during emergent situations. |

Access to Healthcare

Accessibility

-Rural, transportation
-Income
-Shcedule/time

Barriers

-langauge
-Cost
-Gender discrimination
-Insurance

Staffing

-lack of housing for helathcare professionals
-Lack of providers/staff

Behaviors

-Lack of common knowledge/outreach
-Fear of anonymity
--Patient fear/behavior accountability

Insurance

Political Climate/ Policies