Update on Town and County Ice Rinks

February 21, 2025, Jackson, Wyo. – All ice rinks are currently open, and lights will remain on tonight, Friday, February 21. The Teton County Fairgrounds ice rink had significant ice melt on Thursday due to sunshine and temperatures in the 40's. Teton County/Jackson Parks staff are working hard today to allow weekend access.

The ice rinks at Owen Bircher and Powderhorn Park are in good condition and are expected to remain that way over the next several days; however, due to next week's forecast consisting of rain and snow, and temperatures in the 40's, this will likely be the final operational weekend for Town and County ice rinks.

Parks staff will update the community on changes and hard closing dates, when available, and note that Town and County ice rinks typically close around this time of year.
